ARTICLE 1
APPLICATION

1.1 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the agreement, and the parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted. If mutual agreement cannot be reached, the matter may be submitted to Arbitration by either party.

1.2 Conflict with Policy

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of this agreement and any policy made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this agreement shall take precedence over the said policy.

1.3 The parties hereto subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Act of Alberta. It is further agreed that the provisions of the Employment Standards Code shall apply, as a minimum standard.

ARTICLE 2
UNION RECOGNITION, SECURITY AND RIGHTS

2.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

- (a) "Bargaining Unit" means all Employees including Crew Leaders for the Bridge, Paving, Gravel, Line Painting, Reclamation, Spray Patch, and Sand Mixing crews, except office and clerical personnel, foreman and above.
- (b) Incumbents of new positions established by the Employer shall automatically be included in the bargaining unit unless specifically excluded by mutual agreement between the parties or excluded under the Labour Relations Code.

2.2 Bargaining Agent Recognition

The Employer recognizes the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees (AUPE) as the exclusive bargaining agent for all Employees in the bargaining unit.

2.3 Employee Orientation

The Employer agrees to acquaint new Employees with the fact that a Collective Agreement is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out in the Articles dealing with Union Security and Dues Check-off. Upon hire, a new Employee shall be advised of the name and location of their Union Representative and phone number of the AUPE Resource Centre. The Employer agrees that the Union Representative will be given an opportunity to meet each new Employee, within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for up to thirty (30) minutes some time during the first thirty (30) days of employment for the purpose of acquainting the new Employee with the benefits and duties of a Union membership and the Employee's responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union, and to provide the Employee with a copy of the Collective Agreement.

2.4

Bargaining Unit Work

Excluded Employees shall not perform Bargaining Unit work, except for training purposes, emergency conditions or to protect the company property and to ensure the safety of Employees.

2.5

Union Security

All Employees in the Bargaining Unit shall as a condition of employment, maintain membership in good standing. All new hires as a condition of employment, join the Union within thirty (30) calendar days of the commencing employment and shall remain members in good standing.

2.6

Correspondence

- (a) The Employer agrees that all correspondence between the Employer and the Union related to matters covered by this agreement shall be sent to the President of the Union or their designate.
- (b) The Union agrees that all correspondence between the Union and the Employer related to matters covered by this agreement shall be sent to the Human Resources Manager - 9050 14 Street NW, Edmonton, AB, T6P 0B7.
- (c) The parties agree that a copy of any correspondence between one party and any Employee in the bargaining unit covered by this agreement pertaining to the interpretation of this agreement shall be forwarded to the other party's appropriate designate.

2.7

No Other Agreement

No Employee covered by this agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this agreement.

2.8

No Discrimination for Union Activity

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any Employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

2.9

Recognition of Stewards

- (a) The Employer recognizes the Union's right to appoint stewards and the Union shall notify the Employer of such appointments, in writing. A steward shall obtain the permission of their supervisor prior to leaving their work area to attend to Union duties relating to the Employer's operations. Leave for this purpose shall be with current pay and permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming their duties the steward shall notify their supervisor.
- (b) The duties of stewards shall normally include:
 - (i) investigation of complaints of an urgent nature;
 - (ii) investigation of grievances and assisting any Employee whom the steward represents in presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure;
 - (iii) supervision of ballot boxes and other related functions during Union votes;
 - (iv) attending meetings at the request of the Employer.

- (c) Subject to a recognized lack of other facilities, the Employer will not unreasonably withhold approval to utilize Employer assembly rooms for the purpose of the election of a Union Steward on the Employee's time. This Article is subject to the availability of a suitable Employee who shall accept responsibility for the care of equipment and facilities in the place of work while the election is being conducted.

2.10 Union Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide a bulletin board at each regular assembly point for the exclusive use of the Union, the sites to be determined by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. The use of such bulletin boards shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union. Such information shall be posted by and removed by a Union Representative.

Material posted which the Employer finds objectionable may be removed and the Union shall be notified immediately.

2.11 Union Insignia

A Union member shall have the right to wear or display the recognized insignia of the Union.

2.12 Right to Refuse to Cross Picket Lines

All Employees covered by this agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of a dispute as defined in relevant legislation. Any Employee failing to report for duty shall be considered absent without pay. Failure to cross a picket line encountered in carrying out the Employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement, nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action.

2.13 Time Off for Union Business

- (a) Leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority, shall be granted by the Employer for:
 - (i) an elected or appointed Union representative to attend conventions of the Union and bodies to which the Union is affiliated;
 - (ii) an elected or appointed Union representative to attend to Union business which required them to leave their general work area;
 - (iii) for Employees who are representatives of the Union on the bargaining committee to attend meetings of the committee;
 - (iv) to an Employee called by the Union to appear as a witness before an arbitration board.
- (b) Leave of absence without loss of pay or seniority shall be granted to Union appointees who are attending and may require travel time to attend the Labour/Management Committee.
- (c) To facilitate the administration of Union leaves without pay, the leave shall be given at current pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for wages, Extended Health Care Benefits, shift premiums and Pension Contributions.
- (d) The Union shall normally provide the Employer with fourteen (14) calendar days' notice prior to the commencement of such leave.

- (e) The Employer agrees that any of the above leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld.

2.14 Union Bargaining Committee

Leave of absence without loss of pay and seniority shall be granted up to four (4) members of the Bargaining Committee to negotiate with the Employer. This leave shall be facilitated pursuant to Article 2.13(c)

2.15 Office Use/ Union Representatives

- (a) Union representatives may be permitted entry to the Employer's premises in order to carry out their required duties. Union representatives shall notify the designated supervisor in advance of this requirement and shall also indicate the purpose for entering. Union representatives shall not interfere with the operational requirements of the Employer.
- (b) The Employer may make available to Union representatives, temporary use of an office or similar facility to conduct confidential investigation of grievances.
- (c) Union Representatives include the President, Stewards, Executive Members and staff of the Union.
- (d) The Employer may allow reasonable use of assembly rooms or similar facilities for the purpose of conducting Union meetings on the Employee's time. Union Representatives shall be allowed reasonable use of the Employer's telephone and facsimile machines for the purpose of conducting Union business on the Employee's time.

2.16 Emergency Services

The Parties recognize that, in the event of a strike or lockout, situations may arise of an emergency nature. To this end, the Employer and Union agree to provide services of an emergency nature.

2.17 No Interruption of Work

The Parties agree there will be no strike or lockout during the term of this agreement.

ARTICLE 3
CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

3.1 Union Dues and Assessments

- (a) The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct from the wages or salary of each Employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the Employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.
- (b) The Employer shall deduct from each Employee, who is a member of the Union, any assessments levied in accordance with the Union's Constitution and Bylaws and owing by the Employee to the Union.
- (c) Deductions shall be made for each biweekly payroll period and membership dues or payments in lieu thereof shall be considered owing in the period for which they are so deducted.

- (d) All deductions shall be remitted to the President of the Union not later than twenty-eight (28) days after the date of deduction.
- (e) The Employer shall also provide the following information by Contract Area electronically;

1. Employee name
2. Employee Number
3. Date of Hire
4. Address
5. Work telephone number
6. Personal telephone number
7. Worksite Location
8. Job Classification
9. Seniority Date
10. Hourly Rate of Pay
11. Base Earnings

If available the Employer agrees to provide the following information by Contract Area electronically:

12. Home mailing address
13. Home telephone number
14. Work Cellular phone number
15. Work email address

- (f) Before the Employer is obligated to deduct any amount under (a) or (b) above, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular dues. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer signed by the president of the Union. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount shall be the amount deducted.
- (g) From the date of the signing of this agreement and for its duration, no Employee organization other than the Union shall be permitted to have membership dues or other moneys deducted by the Employer from the pay of the Employees in the bargaining unit.
- (h) The Employer shall supply each Employee, without charge, a receipt (T4) for income tax purposes in the amount of the deductions paid to the Union by the Employer in the previous year.
- (i) An Employee shall, as a condition of continued employment, complete an authorization form providing for the deduction from an Employee's wages or salary, the amount of the regular dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.

ARTICLE 4 EMPLOYER RIGHTS

4.1 Employer Recognition

The Employer's rights include but are not limited to the following, except as otherwise specified in this agreement:

- (a) to maintain order, discipline and efficiency; to make, alter and enforce rules and regulations, policies and practices, to be adhered to by its Employees; to discipline and discharge Employees for just cause.

- (b) to select, hire and direct the working force and Employees; to transfer, assign, promote, demote, classify, layoff, recall and suspend Employees; to select and retain Employees for positions excluded from the bargaining unit.
- (c) to operate and manage the Employer's business in order to satisfy its commitments and responsibilities. The right to determine the kind and location of business to be done by the Employer, the direction of the working forces, the scheduling of work, the number of shifts, the methods, processes and means by which work is to be performed, job content, quality and quantity standards, the right to use improved methods, machinery and equipment, the right to determine the number of Employees needed by the Employer at any time and generally, the right to manage the business of the Employer, and to plan, direct and control the operations of the Employer.
- (d) The Parties recognize the safety sensitive nature of the work conducted by EMCON Employees.
- (e) The sole and exclusive jurisdiction over operations, building, machinery, equipment will be vested in the Employer.

ARTICLE 5
LABOUR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

5.1 The Employer and the Union agree that in the exercise of each of their rights and in the administration of this Agreement they shall do so in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner.

5.2 Union and Employer Representation

No Employee or group of Employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without the proper authorization of the Union. To implement this the Union shall supply the Employer with the names of its officers and similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

5.3 Labour/ Management Committee

- (a) The Employer and the Union agree to establish a labour/management committee comprised of up to four (4) Union members and up to four (4) Employer representatives. The committee meets whenever mutually agreed and ideally twice a year. All meetings will be held at the Union's premises in Edmonton, AB. Upon request by either the Employer or the Union, a meeting will be held within twenty-one (21) days.
- (b) The Committee shall be co-chaired by an Employer and Union representative. The purpose of the meetings shall be to exchange information of mutual interest, to review administrative matters arising from this agreement, and to maintain effective Union/ Employer relations.

A committee member, attending the Labour Management committee meetings during regular working hours, will be entitled to their regularly hourly rate of pay.

ARTICLE 6
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

6.1 Informal Resolution

Every effort should be made to resolve problems through dialogue at prior to going to Grievance. The Parties agree to ensure full explanation of issues during initial discussions.

6.2 Grievances

- (a) "Grievance" shall mean the difference between the Parties to, or the persons bound by this Collective Agreement, as to the interpretation, application, operation, contravention or alleged contravention of this Agreement and shall be dealt with progressively.
- (b) Grievances relating to the alleged failure to apply a specific benefit eg. Vacation leave, Sick leave, wage increments etc. will apply to all affected Employees.
- (c) At each step of the Grievance procedure, the Employer's representative and the Union Representative shall exchange information known to them and related to the issue in dispute that would assist in resolving the Grievance.

6.3 Types of Grievances

(a) Individual Grievance

An Individual Grievance is a dispute affecting one (1) Employee. Such Grievance shall be initiated at Step 1.

(b) Group Grievance

A Group Grievance is a dispute affecting two (2) or more Employees. Such Grievance shall be initiated at Step 1. A group Grievance shall list all affected Employees as early in the Grievance process as possible and the results of the Grievance shall apply to all affected.

(c) Policy Grievance

A "Policy Grievance" is defined as one which involves a question relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement. Either Party may submit a Policy Grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days of when they knew or ought to have known of the action or circumstance giving rise to the Grievance.

(i) Union Policy Grievances shall be initiated at Step 1.

(ii) Employer Policy Grievances shall be initiated at Arbitration.

6.4 Suspension or Discharge

Grievances arising from suspension or dismissal shall be filed at Step 1 of the Grievance procedure within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence. Failing a satisfactory settlement or reply within fourteen (14) calendar days the matter shall advance to arbitration.

6.5 Union Representation

The aggrieved shall have the right to Union Representation throughout the Grievance procedure.

6.6

Failing resolution of the problem through informal resolution in 6.1, the Grievance shall be provided in writing to the designated supervisory official within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date the Employee became aware of or reasonably ought to have become aware of the incident giving rise to the Grievance.

The Human Resources Manager, or their designate, shall schedule a Grievance hearing to be held within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the Grievance. If resolution to the Grievance is not reached at the Grievance hearing, the Human Resources Manager shall provide a detailed written response within fourteen (14) calendar days. If resolution is reached at the Grievance hearing, the Human Resources Manager shall provide a letter detailing the resolution within fourteen (14) calendar days.

If resolution of the Grievance is not reached during the discussion at Step 1, the Grievance shall advance to Arbitration.

6.7

Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, the Union's Member Service Officer may submit the grievance to arbitration within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date of receipt of the Employer's Step 2 reply, or of the date it was due.

Either party may submit a policy grievance respecting the general application, interpretation, or an alleged violation of an article of this agreement, within fifteen (15) calendar days of when they knew or ought to have known of the action or circumstance giving rise to the grievance, submit a grievance at arbitration pursuant to Article 9.1.

Time Limits

- (a) The time limits set out in the Grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties.
- (b) It is the desire of both Parties to this Agreement to resolve Grievances in a manner that is just and equitable, and it is not the intention of either the Employer or the Union to evade settlement of disputes on a procedural technicality. However, notwithstanding the forgoing, it is clearly understood that time limits established herein are for the sake of procedural orderliness and are to be adhered to.
- (c) Should either party fail to adhere to the time limits, the onus is on that party to show a justifiable reason for its failure to adhere to such limits.

Administrative Provisions

Grievances and replies at Step 1 of the Grievance procedure, which are required in writing, shall be sent by email, facsimile transmission, or other mutually agreeable means. Written replies and notification shall be deemed to be presented on the date which they are sent by email, facsimile transmission, or accepted by a courier and received on the day they were delivered or received by facsimile transmission in the appropriate office. Receipt of facsimile transmissions and/or email must be confirmed by both Parties on the date on which they are received/sent.

6.10 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that after a grievance has been initiated, no discussion will be entered into respecting the grievance, with the aggrieved Employee, without the consent of the Union.

6.11 Pre-Arbitration Meeting

- (a) The president of the Company or their designate, shall meet with the Union's representative (teleconference is acceptable with mutual agreement between the Parties), within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the Union's notice of intent to arbitrate at which time the Parties will attempt to resolve the Grievances or, alternatively, explore common ground respecting the matter and agree upon a single arbitrator.
- (b) The Parties will attempt to seek agreement from the Arbitrator to provide a written decision within 30 days of the hearing.
- (c) Should the Parties be unable to agree upon a single Arbitrator, application shall be made to the Director of Mediation Services to appoint an Arbitrator pursuant to the provisions of the Labour Relations Code.

6.12 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding, and enforceable on the parties. The Arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a grievance by any arrangement deemed just and equitable. However, the Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement by altering, modifying, or amending any provision.

6.13 Costs

The parties to this agreement shall jointly bear the cost of the arbitrator and each of the parties shall bear the cost of its own representatives and witnesses.

ARTICLE 7
DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

7.1 Discipline for Just Cause Only

No disciplinary measure shall be imposed on any Employee without just cause. With the exception of informal verbal counseling, notice of discipline shall be in writing to the Employee and the Union and shall indicate the incident or incidents giving rise to the discipline. Such notice shall be issued within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Employer becoming aware of the incident, giving rise to the discipline.

7.2 Progressive Discipline

The Parties agree that culpable misconduct shall be subject to constructive and corrective action in the form of Progressive discipline. Progressive discipline is corrective in nature and seeks compliance using a disciplinary sanction proportionate to the misconduct. Progressive discipline only applies to instances of culpable misconduct.

7.3 Culpable Misconduct

Culpable misconduct is behaviour that has the following characteristics:

- (a) The Employee knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, what is required.
- (b) The Employee is capable of carrying out what is required.
- (c) The Employee chooses to perform in a manner other than as required.

7.4 Burden of Proof

In all cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

7.5 Investigations Timely

The Employer will investigate allegations of culpable misconduct in a timely fashion.

7.6 Disciplinary Steps

The steps in the Progressive Discipline procedure include some, multiple, or all of the following:

- (a) Informal verbal counselling.
- (b) Written warning.
- (c) Suspension.
- (d) Dismissal.

7.7 Right to Union Representation

- (a) Both the Employee and the Union Representative shall be advised in advance and in writing of the purpose of any meeting with the Employer which may be the basis of disciplinary action. The Employer will provide a copy of any complaint prior to the investigation meeting.
- (b) Any disciplinary sanction as a result of the investigation will be provided to the Employee and the Union within fourteen (14) days of the conclusion of the investigation.

7.8 Personnel File

An Employee, or the President of the Union or their designate, with the written authority of the Employee, shall be entitled to review the Employee's personnel file(s), both paper and, if applicable, electronic, in the office in which the file is normally kept. The Employee or the President, as the case may be, shall give the Employer adequate notice prior to having access to such file(s).

- (a) An Employee may make written request to the Director of Human Resources to have disciplinary documents removed from their file after twelve (12) months. The onus will be on the Employee to provide adequate reasons to have the document(s) removed.
- (b) Disciplinary documents shall be assumed to have been removed from an Employee's file after twenty-four (24) months.

ARTICLE 8
SENIORITY

8.1 Seniority Defined

- (a) Seniority for regular Employees shall be defined as the length of service with the Employer. Seniority shall be maintained and accrued except as specified in Article 11.3.
- (b) When two (2) or more Employees have equal seniority, the order of establishing their relative seniority shall be determined by the Employees service start date with the Employer as set out in Article 8.1(a). Where the start dates are equal, their relative seniority will be determined by using continuous service with the previous contractors if records are provided by the Employee. Should this not resolve the issue, then final determination will be by chance as determined by the Union.

8.2 Seniority Lists for Regular Employees

- (a) The Employer will prepare seniority lists annually as of January 1st. The information will show each person's shop location, seniority date. These lists will be posted on the appropriate bulletin boards with copies sent to the Union. Whenever changes occur for regular Employees, the Employer agrees to post an updated list. Seniority lists shall show Employees in descending order of seniority from most senior to least senior. Prior service with the Employer as a seasonal or casual Employee shall be credited towards seniority on a pro-rated basis of a two thousand and eighty (2080) hours work year.
- (b) In addition, should the Employer fail to maintain or extend the current maintenance contract with the Province of Alberta, seniority lists shall be issued on the first (1st) day of the month preceding the expiry of the maintenance contract. Seniority lists shall include vacation credits and seniority ranking for vacation entitlement.

8.3 Loss of Seniority for a Regular Employee

A regular Employee shall lose their seniority in the event that:

- (a) They are discharged for cause;
- (b) They resign or abandon their position;
- (c) accepts a position with the Employer which is outside the bargaining unit, except for temporary appointments for less than ninety (90) working days. This temporary period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. During this temporary period an Employee will continue to pay Union dues at their old rate and remain a member of the bargaining unit;
- (d) accepts a severance payment in accordance with Article 10;
- (e) laid off for more than eighteen (18) months.

- (f) is sent notice of recall of no less than ten (10) calendar days by registered mail to the last address on record with the Company and fails to report on the date of recall, unless they has contacted the company and has received an extension to report. A notice of recall which has been returned as unclaimed or refused will be considered received. It is the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address. The Employer will undertake to provide notice by email (if on file) which will alert the Employee of the forthcoming registered mail letter regarding recall.

8.4 Re-Employment

A regular Employee who resigns their position and within sixty (60) days is re-employed as a regular Employee, shall retain, effective the date of re-employment, all previous provisions and rights in relations to seniority and other fringe benefits.

8.5 Bridging of Service

If a regular Employee resigns as a result of a decision to raise a dependent child or dependent children, and is re-employed, they shall be credited with length of service accumulated at time of resignation for the purposes of benefits based on seniority. The following conditions shall apply:

- (a) the Employee must have been a regular Employee with at least five (5) years of seniority at time of resignation;
- (b) the resignation must indicate the reasons;
- (c) the break in service shall be for no longer than one (1) year;
- (d) the previous length of service shall not be reinstated until successful completion of the trial period on re-employment.

8.6 Seasonal Employees

Seasonal Employees shall earn seniority which shall be calculated based on all regular hours worked.

ARTICLE 9
PROMOTIONS, VACANCIES AND JOB POSTINGS

9.1 Vacancy Filled by a Regular Employee in a Superintendent's Area

When a vacancy for a regular position occurs, the Employer shall post the vacancy on the bulletin boards in all shop locations. The posting shall describe the position and job duties, hourly rates, whether shift work is involved, the shop location where the position is based, Alberta Transportation response times and the date of the posting. All applications shall be submitted in writing within ten (10) calendar days of the date posted:

- (a) The Employer shall fill the position(s) based on the applications received, first to the qualified regular Employee(s) starting with the most senior and then in descending order of seniority in the Superintendent's Area;
- (b) Second, shall fill the position(s) based on applications received, to the qualified regular Employee(s) starting with the most senior and then in descending order of seniority from other Superintendent Areas;

- (c) Third, shall fill the position(s) based on the applications received, to the most senior qualified regular Employee(s) in a different classification(s) from all Superintendent's Areas;
- (d) If after thirty (30) calendar days of the date of posting there are no successful applicants from the regular Employees in the bargaining unit, the Employer shall offer the vacant position(s) to eligible qualified Seasonal Employees in the pool, being those who have attained 2080 hours in 39 pay periods, to the most senior qualified Employee and then in descending order of seniority;
- (e) In the event the Employer was not able to fill the vacancy from the above process, the Employer may hire qualified Seasonals not in the pool, casuals or from outside the bargaining unit;
- (f) In all cases above, the successful applicant must meet Alberta Transportation response times;
- (g) Applicants for a posted position shall be granted leave of absence with current pay as required for an interview.

9.2 Posting Awards

The position shall be awarded within thirty (30) calendar days of posting. The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of all job posting awards and shall post such awards on all bulletin boards.

9.3 Job Award Information

An unsuccessful applicant may request, in writing, an explanation from the Alberta Roads, Human Resources Manager, why they was unsuccessful, and receive a reply in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the request.

9.4 Posting Awards/Notification of Unsuccessful Applicants and Grievance Process

- (a) The name and classification of the successful applicant will be posted on all bulletin boards.
- (b) Grievances must be filed at Step 2 within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the Alberta Roads, Human Resources Manager's reply. Where a grievance has been filed, no permanent placement shall take place until the grievance has been resolved. The Employer may temporarily award the position subject to the resolution of any grievance.

9.5 Interview Expenses

Applicants for a posted position shall be granted leave of absence with current pay as required for an interview.

9.6 Probationary Period

- (a) Each new Employee shall serve a probationary period of ninety (90) working days from date of hire during which time the Employer shall assess suitability for continued employment.
- (b) Where an Employee feels they have been aggrieved by the decision of the Employer to reject the Employee during the probationary period, the Employee may submit the matter as a grievance in accordance with Article 6 within fifteen (15) days of the date upon which the Employee was notified of their rejection on probation.

9.7

Trial Period

- (a) Where a bargaining unit Employee is promoted, they will be placed on trial for a thirty (30) working day period, and upon satisfactory completion of the trial period will be confirmed in the position in writing by the Employer. If an Employee is unable to perform the duties of the new position, they will be returned to the former position held. Any other Employee(s) transferred or promoted as a result of the original job posting will also be returned to their former status.
- (b) In applying (a) above to seasonal Employees becoming a regular Employee, the thirty (30) day trial period will be deemed to be a subsequent probation period. During this subsequent probation period, the Employer may review the Employee for suitability for regular employment; providing the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.

Filling of Regular Vacancies

Subject to MOU #6, the Employer shall fill regular vacancies in each Superintendent's Area, created as a result of a regular Employee's resignation, death, retirement, promotion, transfer, dismissal and regular vacancies created pursuant to Article 9 or any vacancies created as a result of an Employee using this article. Whenever the complement of regular Employees falls below the minimum staffing levels, as provided in MOU #6, the Employer agrees to fill the vacancies or new positions within thirty (30) calendar days.

9.9

Filling of Temporary Vacancies

- (a) The Employer may fill vacancies of a temporary nature created as a result of a regular Employee being absent on sick leave which exceeds ninety (90) calendar days.
- (b) Any other temporary vacancy may be filled as required by the Employer.
- (c) Where a temporary vacancy occurs pursuant to (a) or (b) above, the Employer may, no later than the eighty-ninth (89th) day which may be extended by mutual agreement with the Union up to one hundred and eighty (180) days, offer the position to Employees within the Superintendent's Area as follows:
 - (i) first, to qualified regular Employees starting with the most senior and then in descending order of seniority within the Superintendent's Area;
 - (ii) second, to qualified regular Employees starting with the most senior and then in descending order of seniority within any Superintendent's Area;
 - (iii) third, to qualified seasonal Employees starting within any Superintendent's Area.
- (d) Where subsequent vacancies are created as a result of Article 12.8(c), the Employer may fill those vacancies immediately by repeating the above process.
- (e) It is understood that Employees who fill vacancies temporarily shall return to their former position and status should the Employee referred to above return to their regular position.

9.10 Letter of Preference

Employees shall be allowed to submit a "Letter of Preference" to bid on a job posting or training posting that might come available while the Employee is on vacation or other authorized leave of absence.

ARTICLE 10
LAYOFF AND RECALL

10.0 Reassignment on Temporary Reduction of Work

Where an Employee is reassigned for a period of time greater than one (1) full shift, such reassignment shall be made by reverse order of seniority of those Employees working within a foreman's area. In doing so, such Employee must be qualified to perform the assigned job.

10.2 Notice of Layoff

- (a) The Employer shall give the Union and the Employee fourteen (14) calendar days' notice of lay-off.
- (b) In the event of a lay-off, regular and full-time sessional Employees will be laid off by reverse seniority within a shop location.

10.3 Options Upon Layoff

A Regular Employee and full-time sessional Employee affected by a layoff may choose by indicating to the Employer in writing one of the following options:

- (a) Displace a junior Employee in the same classification within the Superintendent's Area. In doing so such Employee must have the necessary qualifications to perform the job, which includes Alberta Transportation contract response times.
- (b) Displace a junior Employee in the same classification within another Superintendent's Area. In doing so such Employee must have the necessary qualifications to perform the job, which includes Alberta Transportation contract response times.
- (c) Displace a junior Employee in a different classification within any Superintendent's Area. In doing so such Employee must have the necessary qualifications and skills to perform the job, which includes Alberta Transportation contract response times.
- (d) Fill a vacancy in another Superintendent's Area, provided he is qualified to perform the work.
- (e) Opt to be placed on a recall list for eighteen (18) months for the purpose of recall to a position within his Superintendent's Area first, then to another Superintendent's Area for which the Employee is qualified. If this option is selected, no severance pay will be paid.
- (f) In all cases relative to (a) through (d) above, the Employee will be allowed a period of familiarization of no more than thirty (30) working days.
- (g) When the Company has determined there is no work available the Employee may opt for severance pay in accordance with Division 8 of the Alberta Employment Standards Code.
- (h) Opt for early retirement.

- (i) The Employer agrees to notify the Union office of the names of Employees laid-off within the pay period of the date during which the layoff occurs, together with the Employee's classification, latest available phone number and email address.

10.4 Recall

Employees laid-off will be placed on a recall list for eighteen (18) months and will be called back in reverse order that they were laid off providing they are qualified to perform the work available, after a period of familiarization.

10.5 Pre-Layoff Canvas

- (a) Prior to laying off a regular or full-time sessional Employee, the Employer must canvass all regular Employees in order of seniority in the same classification, within the same shop location to invite one of the following options:
 - (i) placement into other available positions (relocation expenses will not apply); or
 - (ii) early retirement; or
 - (iii) layoff with recall rights.
- (b) The senior Employee, with no less than five (5) years service with the Employer and with a minimum age of fifty-five (55) years, who selected early retirement, will be entitled to severance pay in accordance with Division 8 of the Employment Standards Code as if they were laid off.

10.6 Yard Closure

The Employer or the Government may close or relocate a yard pursuant to MOU #2.

10.7 Transfer Without Posting

After discussion with the Union Member Service Officer, the Employer may grant lateral transfers or voluntary demotions within the Company, for compassionate or medical reasons. Compassionate or medical reasons shall be defined as but not restricted to the following:

- (a) Illness of Employee or family members requiring medical attention which is unavailable in the immediate area, e.g. spouse or dependent with kidney problems requiring dialysis on a regular basis.
- (b) Special needs family members who require attention which is unavailable in the immediate area, for example, blind or deaf dependants who require special schooling.
- (c) Health circumstances which leave the member in a position where they is unable to work at the existing location.

10.8 Relocations of a Temporary Nature

Employees shall not be required to relocate to another shop location except for a temporary vacancy, in which case all associated expenses and travelling time will be paid by the Employer. Such temporary vacancies will not exceed thirty (30) working days, except by mutual agreement. Temporary vacancies will be offered to senior qualified Employees on a first right of refusal basis.

10.9 Minimum Staffing Level
The Employer agrees to maintain staffing levels as described in MOU #6.

10.10 Regular Employees after Temporaries
No regular or full-time sessional Employee shall be laid off and replaced by a casual Employee or series of casual Employees.

ARTICLE 15
ANNUAL VACATIONS

- 15.1 Annual Vacation Entitlement
 (a) Definitions:
 (i) "Vacation year" - for the purposes of this article a vacation year shall be the calendar year commencing January 1st and ending December 31st.
 (ii) "First vacation year" - the first (1st) vacation year is the calendar year in which the Employee's first (1st) anniversary falls.

- (b) A Regular Employee who has been continuously employed during the qualifying period will have an annual vacation entitlement as set out in (c) below.
- (c) This will include the current practice of the three (3) days over Christmas Season:
 - (i) For Regular Employees with less than 10 years' service, the Employee will earn vacation credits at the rate of one and one quarter (1 1/4th) days for each month in which they has worked at least ten (10) days at straight time;
 - (ii) For Regular Employees with more than 10 years' service, the Employee will earn vacation credits at the rate of one and two thirds (1 2/3rd) days for each month in which they has worked at least ten (10) days at straight time;
 - (iii) Paid time off for each day of vacation entitlement shall be eight (8) hours per day;
 - (iv) Seasonal and Casual Employees get vacation pay paid on each cheque, pursuant to Employment Standard rates in effect from time to time.

15.2 Vacation Period

The Employer will endeavour to allow as many Employees as possible to take their vacation at any time of the year, however, restrictions may be imposed and there shall not be any complete embargos.

15.3 Preference in Vacation

- (a) A preference in selection of vacation time shall be determined in each shop location on the basis of seniority by classification within that shop location.
- (b) An Employee shall be entitled to receive his vacation in an unbroken period. Employees wishing to split their vacation may exercise seniority rights in their first choice within each shop location.

Seniority shall prevail in the choice of the subsequent vacation period, but only after all other first vacation periods have been selected.

15.4 Vacation Schedules

Vacation schedules will be posted between December 1st and December 15th for the period of January 1st through April 30th, and between April 1st and April 15th for the period May 1st through December 31st.

15.5 Vacation Relief

Vacation schedules, once approved by the Employer, shall not be changed, other than in cases of emergency, except by mutual agreement between the Employee and the Employer.

15.6 Vacation Pay

- (d) all benefits terminate while Employees are on leave for these purposes and such leave shall be restricted to one (1) Employee in each situation.
- (e) For Employees on leave for a reason listed above, they shall continue to accrue seniority.

16.5

Leave for Court Appearances

- (a) The Employer shall grant paid leave to Employees, other than Employees on leave without pay, who serve as jurors or witnesses in a court action, provided such court action is not occasioned by the Employee's private affairs and the Employee must pay to the Employer the full amount of any attendance fee or payment received to act as juror or witness.
- (b) In cases where an Employee's private affairs have occasioned a court appearance, such leave to attend at court shall be without pay.
- (c) An Employee in receipt of their regular earnings while serving at court shall remit to the Employer all monies paid to him/her by the court, except travelling and meal allowances not reimbursed by the Employer.
- (d) In the event an accused Employee is jailed for a period not exceeding five (5) days pending a court appearance, such leave of absence shall be without pay.
- (e) For all the above leaves, the Employee shall advise their supervisor as soon as they are aware that such leave is required.

16.6

Leave for Writing Examinations

Leave of absence with pay shall be granted to allow Employees time to write examinations for courses approved by the Employer. Employees shall advise the Employer of the time and place of the examination when they are made aware of the time and place.

16.7

Leave for Taking Courses

- (a) An Employee shall be granted leave with pay to take courses at the request of the Employer. The Employer shall bear the full cost of the course, including tuition fees, entrance or registration fees, laboratory fees, and course required books, necessary travelling and subsistence expenses, and other legitimate expenses where applicable. Fees are to be paid by the Employer when due.

- (b) A regular Employee may be granted leave without pay, or leave with partial pay, to take courses in which the Employee wishes to enrol.

Educational Leave

Both parties recognize that improved equipment, methods and procedures create changes in the job structure of the workforce. The parties also recognize the need to provide Employees with the opportunity for career development by enabling them to prepare for promotional advancement and generally upgrade their present skills. In such instances, educational leave may be granted by the Employer to regular Employees to take advanced or special training which will be of benefit to the Employee or the Employer for varying periods up to one (1) year which may be renewed by mutual agreement. Such leave will be without pay.

16.9

Elections

Any Employee eligible to vote in a federal, provincial or municipal election or a referendum shall have four (4) consecutive clear hours during the hours in which the polls are open in which to cast their ballot.

16.10

General Leave

Notwithstanding any provision for leave in this agreement, the Employer may grant a leave of absence without pay to an Employee requesting leave for an emergency or other unusual circumstances. A leave of absence may also be granted for any other reason in which case approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. All requests and approvals for leave shall be in writing. Upon request, the Employer will give reasons verbally for withholding approval.

16.11

Maximum Leave Entitlement

Leaves taken shall not exceed a total of five (5) days or hourly equivalent thereof per calendar year, unless additional special leave is approved by the Employer.

16.12

Emergency Service Leave

Where Employees' services are required for emergency operations by request from the Provincial Emergency Programs or appropriate police or fire authority, leave from work as required may be granted without loss of basic pay. ARTICLE 17
MATERNITY LEAVE AND PARENTAL LEAVE

17.1 Entitlement to Maternity Leave

A pregnant Employee who has been employed by an Employer for at least fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks is entitled to maternity leave without pay

17.2 Length of Maternity Leave

- (a) The maternity leave to which a pregnant Employee is entitled is a period of not more than fifteen (15) weeks starting at any time during the twelve (12) weeks immediately before the estimated date of delivery.
- (b) An Employee who takes maternity leave must take a period of leave of at least six (6) weeks immediately following the date of delivery, unless the Employee and her Employer agree to shorten the period by the Employee's giving her Employer a medical certificate indicating that resumption of work will not endanger her health.

17.3 Notice of Maternity Leave

- (a) A pregnant Employee must give her Employer at least six (6) weeks' written notice of the date she will start her maternity leave, and if so requested by her Employer, the pregnant Employee must provide her Employer with a medical certificate certifying that she is pregnant and giving the estimated date of delivery.
- (b) A pregnant Employee is entitled to start maternity leave on the date specified in the written notice given to her Employer under subsection (1).

17.4 No Notice of Maternity Leave

An Employee who does not give her Employer prior notice of maternity leave before starting it is still entitled to maternity leave if, within two (2) weeks after she ceases to work, she provides her Employer with a medical certificate

- (a) indicating that she is not able to work because of a medical condition arising from her pregnancy, and
- (b) giving the estimated or actual date of delivery.

17.5 Notice of Employer to Start Maternity Leave

If during the twelve (12) weeks immediately before the estimated date of delivery the pregnancy of an Employee interferes with the performance of her duties, an Employer may give the Employee written notice requiring her to start maternity leave.

17.6 Parental Leave

- (a) Subject to subsection (b), an Employer must grant parental leave to an Employee as follows:
 - (i) in the case of an Employee entitled to maternity leave under this Division, a period of not more than thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks immediately following the last day of maternity leave;
 - (ii) in the case of a parent who has been employed by the Employer for at least fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks, a period of not more than thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks within fifty-two (52) weeks after the child's birth;

- (iii) in the case of an adoptive parent who has been employed by the Employer for at least fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks, a period of not more than thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks within fifty-two (52) weeks after the child is placed with the adoptive parent for the purpose of adoption.
- (b) If Employees described in this section are parents of the same child, the parental leave granted under subsection (a) may (i) be taken wholly by one of the Employees, or (ii) be shared by the Employees.
- (c) If Employees described in this section are parents of the same child and are employed by the same Employer, the Employer is not required to grant parental leave to more than one Employee at a time.

17.7

Notice of Parental Leave

- (a) An Employee must give the Employer at least six (6) weeks' written notice of the date the Employee will start parental leave unless
 - (i) the medical condition of the birth mother or child makes it impossible to comply with this requirement;
 - (ii) the date of the child's placement with the adoptive parent was not foreseeable.
- (b) If the Employee cannot comply with the written notice requirement for any of the reasons stated in subsection (1)(a) or (b), the Employee must give the Employer written notice at the earliest possible time of the date the Employee will start or has started parental leave.
- (c) An Employee is entitled to start parental leave on the date specified in the written notice given to the Employer under subsection (a) or (b).
- (d) Written notice under section 17.3 is deemed to be notice of parental leave under this section unless the notice specifically provides that it is not notice of parental leave, in which case this section applies.
- (e) Employees who intend to share parental leave must advise their respective Employers of their intention to share parental leave.

17.8

Termination of Employment Prohibited During Maternity Leave and Parental Leave

- (a) No Employer may terminate the employment of, or lay off, an Employee who (a) has started her maternity leave, or (b) is entitled to or has started parental leave.
- (b) Subsection (a) does not apply if an Employer suspends or discontinues in whole or in part the business, undertaking or other activity in which the Employee is employed, but the obligation of the Employer to reinstate the Employee or provide the Employee with alternative work in accordance with section 23.1 continues to apply.

17.9

Resumption of Employment

- (a) Subject to section 17.2(b), an Employee must give the Employer at least 4 weeks' written notice of the date on which the Employee intends to resume work and in any event must give notice not later than 4 weeks before the end of the leave period to which the Employee is entitled or 4 weeks before the date on which the Employee has specified as the end of the Employee's leave period, whichever is earlier.

- (b) If an Employee has given notice that she intends to resume work on a date that is before the end of the 6-week period referred to in section 17.2(b), the Employee is entitled without further notice to an additional period of leave sufficient to meet the requirements of section 17.2(b).
- (c) The additional period of leave referred to in subsection (2) is to be charged first against any remaining maternity leave to which the Employee is entitled and then against parental leave, and if it is charged against parental leave the amount of parental leave referred to in section 20 is reduced accordingly.
- (d) An Employee is not entitled to resume working until the date specified in the written notice referred to in subsection (a) or the end of the additional period referred to in subsection (b), as the case may be.
- (e) An Employee must resume work on the date specified in the written notice or immediately following the end of the additional period, as the case may be, and if the Employee fails to return to work on that date the Employee is not entitled to resume work subsequently unless the failure to return to work resulted from unforeseeable or unpreventable circumstances.
- (f) If an Employee fails to provide at least four (4) weeks' notice before the end of the leave period to which the Employee is entitled, the Employee is not entitled to resume work unless the failure to provide the notice resulted from unforeseeable or unpreventable circumstances.
- (g) Where an Employee is entitled to resume work under this section, the Employer must:
 - (i) reinstate the Employee in the position occupied when maternity or parental leave started, or
 - (ii) provide the Employee with alternative work of a comparable nature at not less than the earnings and other benefits that had accrued to the Employee when the maternity or parental leave started.
- (h) An Employee who does not wish to resume employment after maternity or parental leave must give the Employer at least 4 weeks' written notice of intention to terminate employment.

17.10

Suspension of Operations

If the business, undertaking or other activity of an Employer is suspended or discontinued in whole or in part during an Employee's maternity or parental leave and the Employer has not resumed operations when the Employee's leave ends, the Employer must, if the operation is subsequently resumed within fifty-two (52) weeks following the end of the leave,

- (a) reinstate the Employee in the position occupied at the time the maternity or parental leave started, at not less than the earnings and other benefits that had accrued to the Employee, or
- (b) provide the Employee with alternative work in accordance with an established seniority system or practice of the Employer in force at the time the Employee's maternity or parental leave started, with no loss of seniority or other benefits accrued to the Employee.

ARTICLE 18
OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

18.1 Statutory Compliance

The Union and the Employer agree that regulations made pursuant to Alberta's Occupational Health and Safety Act or any other statute of the Province of Alberta pertaining to the working environment shall be complied with.

18.2 Safety Program

The Employer agrees to establish a Safety Program and schedule monthly meetings with Employees in each Superintendent's Area to discuss health and safety matters. The Employer shall maintain a record of the meetings and matters discussed. Copies of the monthly report shall be sent to members of the Occupational Health and Safety Committee and AUPE Headquarters or OH&S Representative.

18.3 Local Occupational Health and Safety Committee

- (a) The Employer and the Union shall establish a joint safety committee in each geographic area (East, West, and South) composed of Union and Employer representatives. The Union representatives shall be appointed by the Union and such representatives must be in the employ of Employer. The Committee shall meet the 2nd Monday in September and the last Monday in April to discuss questions or problems which may arise with respect to the health and safety of Employees. Additional meetings may be held by mutual consent of the Employer and the Union;
- (b) All meetings of the Committee shall be recorded and minutes made available to the Union and the Employer. The Committee shall consist of three (3) Union representatives, one from each work group (Road Crew, Mechanical Crew and Bridge Crew), and up to three (3) management representatives. In areas where there are no Employees in the above classifications, Road Crew will fill the vacancies;
- (c) Employees who are representatives of the Committee shall not suffer any loss of regular earnings for the time spent attending a committee meeting or job site inspection.
- (d) Committee meetings shall be scheduled during normal working hours whenever practicable. Time spent by designated committee members attending to the committee business on their days of rest or outside their regularly scheduled hours of work shall not be considered time worked but such Employees shall receive equivalent time off.
- (e) The Employer and the Union agree that it is mutually beneficial to have all members in attendance at meeting of Occupational Health and Safety Committees. The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that the Union members are able to attend such meetings.
- (f) On a monthly basis each crew shall have a crew safety meeting. Any unresolved concerns should be forwarded to the joint committee.

- 18.4 Right to Refuse Dangerous Work
- (a) An Employee may refuse to work or to do particular work at a work site if the Employee believes on reasonable grounds that there is a dangerous condition at the work site or that the work constitutes a danger to the Employee's health and safety or to the health and safety of another Employee or another person.
- (b) No person shall take any discriminatory action against an Employee, by reason of that worker exercising their rights under the Occupational Safety Act, Regulations or Code.
- 18.5 Investigation of Accidents
- In the event of a fatality the Employer shall immediately notify the President of the AUPE, or designate.
- 18.6 Unresolved Safety Issues
- The Occupational Health and Safety Committee may refer unresolved safety issues to the Joint Labour/ Management Committee for possible resolution. This provision does not limit any right to seek a resolution elsewhere.
- 18.7 Dangerous Goods, Special Wastes, Pesticides and Harmful Substances
- Where Employees are required to work with or are exposed to any dangerous goods, special waste, pesticide or harmful substance, the Employer will ensure that the Employees are adequately trained in the identification, safe handling, use, storage, and/or disposal of same.
- 18.8 Working Alone and Radio Contact or Employee Check
- The Employer shall provide a system to ensure Employees who are working alone are able to report in at predetermined times. The frequency of checks shall be increased during the winter season (October 15 to April 15).
- 18.9 Survival First Aid
- All Employees shall be provided with suitable training once every three years.
- 18.10 Training Programs for Occupational Health and Safety Committee Members
- When training Occupational Health and Safety Committee members, those members shall be granted leave without loss of pay or seniority to attend designated Occupational Health and Safety training courses. This leave shall be facilitated pursuant to Article 2.10(c).
- 18.11 Air Conditioning for Equipment
- The Employer agrees that all new equipment with enclosed cabs to be purchased or leased shall be equipped with air conditioning.

ARTICLE 19 TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 19.1 Recognition of Technological Change
- (a) Both parties acknowledge the overall advantages and necessity of technological change and the ongoing requirement to facilitate change in the Employer's operations.

- (b) The parties recognize the need to develop orderly procedures to facilitate adjustments to and implementation of changes and technology.
- (c) In light of this mutual recognition the parties have agreed to the following:

19.2

Notice of Technological Change

- (a) For the purpose of technological change, the Employer agrees to provide the Union with as much notice as possible, but in any event not less than sixty (60) days notice of a technological change.
- (b) Upon receipt of a notice of technological change pursuant to Article 19.2(a) the Joint Labour/Management Committee shall meet to consult on the impact of the proposed change.
- (c) The written notice identified in Article 19.2(a) will provide the following information:
 - (i) the nature of the change(s);
 - (ii) the anticipated date(s) on which the Employer plans to effect change(s);
 - (iii) the location(s) and number(s) of Employees likely to be directly affected pursuant to (d) below.
- (d) Where notice of technological change has been given pursuant to Article 19.2(a):
 - (i) Regular Employees who are assigned to the Employer to work with the new technology shall receive a period of training and familiarization. Employees involved in training under this Section shall receive their basic pay for the period of training. Where the Employee cannot meet job requirements upon completion of the training and familiarization period, the Employee shall be offered either a vacancy option, or severance pay provisions of Article 10.
 - (ii) To absorb those regular Employees who are not assigned by the Employer to work with the new technology or who are displaced because of such technological change, the Employer will endeavour to utilize normal turnover of Employees with the Employer geographic location in which the change occurs, to the extent that turnover occurs during the period in which a technological change is being implemented.

19.3

Waiving of Notice

Notwithstanding Article 19.2(a), the parties recognize that there may be circumstances of statutory obligations where it is not possible to provide the notice set forth in this article. In such circumstances, notice shall be provided as soon as possible.

19.4

Disputes Resolved

ARTICLE 30
TERM OF AGREEMENT

30.1 Duration

This agreement shall be binding on the parties hereto and shall be effective from November 1, 2019 to October 31, 2024.

30.2 Notice to Bargain

- (a) This agreement may be opened for collective bargaining by either party giving written notice to the other party on or after August 31, 2024, but in any event not later than midnight, October 31, 2024.
- (b) Where no notice is given by either party prior to November 1, 2024, both parties shall be deemed to have given notice under this section on October 31, 2024.
- (c) All notices on behalf of the Union shall be given by the President of the Union and similar notices on behalf of the Employer shall be given by the President or their designate.
- (d) Where a party to this agreement has given notice under subsection (a) above, the parties shall, within ten (10) days after the notice was given or at such other times as may be mutually agreed, commence collective bargaining.
- (e) Both parties shall adhere fully to the terms of this agreement during the period of bona fide collective bargaining.

30.3 Changes in Agreement

Any change deemed necessary to this agreement may be made by mutual agreement of the parties hereto at any time during the life of this agreement.

30.4 Limitations

The signing of this agreement supersedes all other agreements and understandings between the parties hereto and personal contracts with Bargaining Unit Employees.

ARTICLE 31
UNION REPRESENTATION

31.1 Employee Right to Union Representation

- (a) An Employee who is to be interviewed for the purpose of discussing a performance related issue, disciplinary action or investigation, meeting, or interview that may reasonably lead to disciplinary action shall be notified of the time and place of the interview with reasonable advance notice, which shall not be less than twenty-four (24) hours unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If desired by the Employee, they may have a Union Representative or Union Steward of their choice accompany them.
- (b) If an Employee waives their right to Union representation, the Employer shall have the Employee sign the "Waiver of Union Representation" form at Appendix "A". The waiver will be immediately sent to the appropriate Membership Services Officer.
- (c) Notwithstanding (b) above, an Employee has the right to revoke the "Waiver of Union Representation" at any time.
- (d) A request by any Employee for Union Representation at a meeting with the Employer shall not be denied.

31.2 For the purposes of this collective agreement, the Union shall be represented by its properly appointed officers. The Union shall provide the Employer with a current list of the officer's names.

31.3 Steward Right to Represent Employees

The Employer agrees to recognize Employees who are appointed as Union Stewards, and recognizes their authority to represent other Employees. A Union Steward may, at the request of an Employee, accompany or represent her in the processing of a grievance, a meeting or disciplinary investigation with the Employer. When it becomes necessary for a Union Steward to leave her job for this purpose, he will request time off from her manager or designate and provide her with as much advance notice as possible. Arrangements will be made by the manager or designate to permit the Union Steward to leave her job, as soon as reasonably possible, for this purpose with no loss of regular earnings. Such time off shall be granted only upon the approval of the manager or designate, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

31.4 The Union reserves the right to appoint a Union Steward to represent a work area that has no Union Steward.

31.5 Semi-annually a list of Union Stewards shall be supplied by the Union to the Human Resources Department and the Site Manager/Administrator.

31.6 Union Representative Leave

- (a) When it is necessary for a Union member to make a request for a leave of absence to perform the duties of any office of the Union, the application for leave must be made in writing to the Employer for approval. The application for leave will be made in writing to the proper officer of the Employer with as much advance notice as possible.

- (b) The Employer shall not unreasonably withhold leave of absence for Employees elected or appointed to represent the Union at Conventions, Workshops, Institutes, Seminars, Schools or to attend meetings as a member of the Union's Provincial Executive Board.
- (c) When leave to attend Union business has been approved by the Employer, it is granted with pay. The Union agrees to reimburse the Employer for actual salary paid to the Employee while on leave plus an amount determined by the Employer to cover the cost of benefits.
- (d) An Employee who is elected for a full-time position with the Union shall be granted leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority. Where permissible under the pension, group life plan and extended health and dental plans the Employee shall have the right to pay the full cost, including the Employer's share, during the period of such leave of absence.

31.7 Union Bargaining Committee

Leave of absence without loss of pay and seniority shall be granted up to four (4) members of the Bargaining Committee to negotiate with the Employer. This leave shall be facilitated pursuant to Article 2.13(c).

ARTICLE 32
RESPECTFUL WORKPLACE

32.1 The Employer shall have policies and procedures in place pertaining to workplace Harassment, Bullying and Violence.

32.2 Discrimination and Harassment

- (a) Every person who is an Employee has a right to freedom from bullying, harassment and abuse of authority in the workplace by the Employer or agent of the Employer or between Employees because of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, age, record of offence, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, sex, same-sex partnership status, gender identity, gender expression, religion, political beliefs or Union affiliation.
- (b) "Bullying" means repeated or systematic assertion of power through aggressive behaviour – physical, verbal or psychological – including, but not restricted to shunning, which would be seen by a reasonable person as intending to belittle, intimidate, coerce or isolate another person or group of people.
- (c) Personal harassment is unsolicited behaviour, which is directed at or is offensive to another individual. It includes, but not restricted to: demands, threats, gestures, innuendo, remarks, slurs and taunting, which could be based on any proscribed condition as set out [above].

- (d) Sexual harassment is a type of personal harassment which has a sexual purpose or is of a sexual nature including, but not restricted to: sexual assault, verbal threats or abuse, unwanted touching or patting, leering, advances, repeated sexual flirtation, propositions, sexual suggestive gestures, verbal threats or abuse, sexist jokes causing embarrassment, displaying sexually offensive material, derogatory or degrading remarks directed towards members of one sex or one sexual preference group, and inquiries about a person's sex life.
- (e) "Abuse of authority" means the improper use of power that flows from a supervisor or manager's position of authority over an Employee; in particular, intimidation, threats or coercion, which could reasonably be expected to endanger an Employee's ability to perform their job, threaten the Employee's economic livelihood, or significantly affect his or her physical or emotional well-being.
It is not abuse of authority to exercise managerial responsibility legitimately, including but not restricted to managing performance, setting performance expectations, and enforcing policies.
- (f) Workplace harassment is prohibited in any form. All members should be conscious of any behaviour such as that described [above], or which degrades another person. Workplace harassment can also be in the form of exclusion, posters, cartoons, or social media forums.

Re: Minimum Staffing Level

1. As of September, 13, 2017, the Employer had the following number of Regular Employees (inclusive of those on approved leaves of absence) in these contract areas:

West=56
East=108
South=51

The numbers include the bridge crew (6 Employees) and mechanics (20 Employees, including 1 mechanical labourer and 3 apprentices).

2. The Employer shall maintain the number of Regular Employees listed in 1 above. In the event an existing Regular Employee resigns, dies, retires, is promoted, transfers, is dismissed or does not return to work from an approved leave of absence, the position shall be filled in accordance with Article 9.
3. In the event the Employer ceases operations or is not awarded the road maintenance contract for any or all contract areas above by the Government of Alberta, the minimum levels in the affected contract area(s) shall no longer apply.
4. This MOU does not apply to mechanic apprentices and to any future mechanic labourers once the current mechanic labourer ceases to be employed.
5. The Minimum Staffing levels set out in this MOU shall not increase by operation of Article 30.1.

Re: Health Spending Account for Full Time Seasonal Employees

1. The Employer has requested from the Union a without prejudice waiver of definition #9(b) and any other applicable articles of the Collective Agreement related to the layoff of full time Seasonal Employees.
2. Please be advised that the Union hereby agrees to concede to this request, on a without prejudice basis. Hence we hereby confirm that the Union agrees that for the period commencing April 15, 2019 and ending October 31, 2024, the application as referred to in paragraph 1 above of the Collective Agreement will be suspended during such period, and for such period alone, the Employer may refrain from laying off a full time Seasonal Employee and the Union will not take the position that the status of such full time Seasonal Employee has been automatically converted into a Regular Full Time Employee simply by reason of the fact that during such period the contemplated full time Seasonal Employees has been employed for more than seven months.
3. Emcon will provide a Health Spending Plan (HSA) for the duration of the current Emcon Services Inc. (Formerly Carillion Canada Inc.) and the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees Collective Agreement (Locals 118: 024, 025, 026, 027) expiring October 31, 2024.
4. Each Employee referenced above will earn $1.20 per regular hour worked to a cap of $96.15 bi-weekly and a maximum of $2500.00 per year.
5. The Health Spending Plan credits may be used according to Section 118.2(2) of the Income Tax Act.
6. Health Spending credits can be brought forward for one calendar year. Unused credits will no longer be available one year after they are earned.
7. HSA credits carried over from one year to the next will be the first credits used when a claim is made.
8. Claims must be made using the CoRe Group Benefits HSA Claim form, with the original receipts attached and mailed to:

CoRe Benefits & Management Services
#110-1121 McFarlane Way
Merritt, British Columbia, V1K 1B9
Tel. (250) 378-9872
Email: admin@coregroupbenefits.org
9. Claims must be received by CoRe Benefits within 18 months of the date of service on the receipt.

10. HSA claim expenses are reimbursed in their entirety, depending on the available credits. Requests for partial reimbursements cannot be accommodated.
