Apply now: Prairie School for Union Women 2024

The AUPE Women's Committee is excited to announce applications to attend the 2024 Prairie School for Union Women from June 9 to 13 in Regina, Sask., are now open! AUPE is ready to send up to 10 AUPE members to the University of Regina to experience this great opportunity.

What is Prairie School for Union Women?

PSUW offers trade union women an intense four days of learning and sharing in a supportive environment. The school aims to develop women's personal and leadership skills and to build solidarity. For more information on the available courses and logistics, visit the PSUW event website: <https://sfl.sk.ca/events/2024-prairie-school-for-union-women>

To apply, you must have taken AUPE's "Intro to Your Union" course. Successful applicants will be contacted by the Women's Committee with further instruction and information, following the application deadline. Please read the eligibility policies before applying (PDF available online).

The deadline to apply is May 1, 2024, at 4:30 p.m:
