27.02 The Parties recognize that an Employee may be unable to report to work for unpredictable reasons which require the Employee's urgent personal attention and which may include illness within the Employee's immediate family. The Employer shall approve Personal Leave in such circumstances. Personal Leave shall not exceed four (4) working days per year, increasing to six (6) working days, effective January 1, 2023, in total and shall not exceed two (2) consecutive working days and, when granted, shall be charged against the Employee's Casual Illness Entitlement. This Leave shall be with pay only where there is a Casual Illness Entitlement.

27.03 Commencing January 1, 2023, full-time Employees will be provided two (2) bonus days off with pay each calendar year. These days must be taken in the calendar year with no carry over being provided from one calendar year to the next. An employee may utilize the bonus days subject to operational requirements with fourteen (14) days' notice to the Employer except in such exceptional circumstances where it is not possible to give such notice. Bonus days shall be prorated for part-time employees based on full-time hour equivalency and not applicable to casual Employees.

ARTICLE 28
LAYOFF AND RECALL

28.01 When it becomes necessary to eliminate positions or reduce the working force, Employees may be laid off:

- (a) Except where layoff is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, Employees will be given the following notice:
 - (i) for Employees with less than one (1) year's service, thirty (30) calendar days, or
 - (ii) for Employees with one (1) or more years' service, sixty (60) calendar days.
- (b) A laid off Employee may request pay in lieu of notice and the granting of such request is at the Employer's discretion.

28.02 Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, Employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of seniority in their classification within the bargaining unit where the lay-off is occurring. An Employee about to be laid off may bump any Employee with less seniority in their own classification or any lower classification in Schedule "1" within the bargaining unit, providing the Employee exercising the right is qualified to perform the work of the Employee with less seniority.

28.03 An Employee recalled to employment will be placed in the position from which the Employee is laid off or, if such position no longer exists, shall be recalled to another position within the bargaining unit from which they were laid off and which the Employee is capable of filling. The Employee will receive that rate of pay enjoyed at the time prior to layoff, unless recalled to a position for which the maximum rate is lower than the rate enjoyed prior to layoff, in which case, the Employee will receive the maximum rate for the position to which the Employee is recalled.

28.04 Following the expiration of the notice period, Employees are placed on a recall list and shall have first rights, in order of their seniority, to any vacancy in their former job classification or to a classification for which the Employee is qualified. The Employer will not hire new Employees to such classifications while an eligible Employee is on the recall list. Employees recalled to their previous classification shall receive the current rate for the step in the salary range, which they held at the time of layoff.

Employees recalled to another classification shall be placed in a step where they would receive at least the current rate for the step in the salary range which they held at the time of layoff; however, in any event, Employees recalled shall not be paid more than the maximum for the classification to which they are recalled. Such rights will expire twelve (12) months after the date the Employee was placed on the recall list.

28.05 Time spent by a Probationary Employee on layoff will be added to the probationary period.

28.06 Notice of recall shall be by Registered Mail at the last known address. Failure to accept a recall within seven (7) days of the notice shall result in a termination of recall rights.

28.07 An Employee receiving layoff notice may elect to receive the following severance in lieu of recall rights. An Employee who elects to receive severance shall cease to have any rights under the Collective Agreement.

28.09 If an Employee in receipt of the severance package is recalled or reemployed prior to the period paid as severance being exhausted, the Employee shall remit the remaining severance amount, less any lawful deductions at source, to the Employer.

28.10 Should the Negotiations between the Government of Alberta and the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees on behalf of the General Service result in an increase to the amount of severance paid in the event of layoff, such increased rate shall be reflected in this article.

- (a) once in every year,

- At the time of access, the Employee may request the designated Union Representative or Union Steward to be present.

Where the grievor appeals the disciplinary action to Arbitration, the Award of that tribunal shall be placed on the personnel file of the Employee. Subject to the Labour Relations Act, the file shall reflect that Award.

Therefore, in making promotions or transfers, appointment shall be made of the applicant with the greatest seniority and having the required qualifications. Appointments from within the bargaining unit shall be made as soon as reasonably possible.
- 31.05 The successful applicant shall be notified within one week following the end of the posting period. They shall be given a trial period of forty (40) work days, during which time they will receive the necessary training for the position. The Employer shall not curtail the trial period without just cause, before it has run its full course. Conditional on satisfactory service, the Employee shall be declared permanent after the trial period. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, or if the Employee is unable or unwilling to continue to perform the duties of the new job classification, the Employee shall be returned to their former position, wage, or salary rate, without loss of seniority. Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former position, wage or salary rate without loss of seniority.
- 31.06 Where an Applicant who is already within the bargaining unit does not possess the required educational qualifications for a posted position, but is in the process of obtaining the necessary educational qualifications, that Employee may apply for the posted position. - 31.08 Where an Employee is transferred or demoted (non-disciplinary) to a lower paid classification, the salary of the Employee shall be frozen until such time as the maximum step of the appropriate classification exceeds the Employee's rate of pay. At that time the Employee will be placed at the maximum of the range for the new classification and be eligible to receive future increases applied to the salary grid. Employees frozen over range shall receive the equivalent of the negotiated increase for each year of the agreement in a lump sum payment, payable on the first pay period in April.
- 31.09 Where an Employee applies for and accepts an appointment to a lower paid classification, the salary of the Employee shall be placed within the range of the new classification at the closest level at or below the Employee's existing salary.
- 31.10 A promoted or transferred Employee shall serve a trial period of forty (40) work days in the new classification. During the trial period, the Employee may be returned to their former position by the Employer. For the first fifteen (15) work days, the Employee may at their request also return to their former position.
- 31.11 An Employee occupying a permanent position may apply for a promotion or transfer to a temporary position exceeding ninety (90) days in duration. If appointed to such a position, the Employee shall be returned to their former position when the temporary position ends.

Access to Justice

Whereas the Employer and the Union agree that timely and efficient access to justice for all clients is an essential priority.

And whereas there are instances in which barriers exist for clients to access legal aid via the call centre.

Therefore, the parties agree to the creation of an online solution (including but not limited to electronic/computer or facsimile) for use by participants in the justice system to supplement the application process on behalf of clients.

1. It is understood that a final determination of eligibility cannot be made by outside organizations or contractors external to Legal Aid or Legal Aid processes.
2. The provision of in-person service is a defining characteristic of the Courthouse Intake and Assessment Officer position. Therefore, CIAOs should be considered first for the provision of videoconferencing with clients.
3. An online secure digital form or facsimile will be used by a client designate/agent on behalf of the prospective or existing client seeking legal aid coverage. The client designate/agent will collect information through their use of an intake form prepared and provided by the Employer.
4. The client designate/agent will include, but will not be limited to, Native Counseling Services, Social Workers, Roster Lawyers, Duty Counsel, Justice of the Peace Bail, Student Legal Services, Health Center/Nursing Center, Friendship Centers, Band Offices or the Elizabeth Fry Society.
5. The completed intake form will be forwarded to Legal Aid electronically and/or by way of facsimile.
6. In addition to their other roles and responsibilities, the CIAO and/or CCIO personnel will review and input the information contained within the intake form thereby formally completing the application process, thereafter making necessary determinations with respect to eligibility, as well as appointments of legal counsel. The intake forms will be provided to CIAO personnel, subject to the time to process such applications being less than 24 hours (not including weekends and holidays) from the time of receipt by the Employer, following which intake forms will also be delivered to CCIO personnel, until the processing time falls below 24 hours (not including weekends and holidays) from the time of receipt of the intake form.
7. CCIOs when performing the above functions will not be eligible for acting incumbency, as a CIAO, pay provisions in this Agreement.

8. There shall be no layoffs of any CCIO and/or CIAO personnel for reasons relating to the implementation of this Access to Justice Program.
