It pays to belong to AUPE!

So, you're a member of AUPE, the largest union in Western Canada.

But apart from higher pay, safer workplaces, better working conditions and camaraderie with your fellow members, you might be asking:

What's in it for me?

The answer is:

Lots.

That's where your Membership Services Committee comes in.

AUPE

The Alberta Union of Provincial Employees (AUPE) has several standing committees that work in various ways to help members.

The Membership Services Committee has a mandate to promote the general welfare of members. This includes:

- Considering how best to deliver services to members.
- Keeping members informed.
- Promoting the training of members.
- Promoting the training of stewards.

BUT WAIT, THERE'S MORE!

We're talking discounts, we're talking great deals at retailers and service providers near you. Taking advantage of these can easily save more than you spend on union dues!

WHO DOESN'T LOVE A GOOD DEAL?

Everyone loves a bargain.

Because AUPE is Western Canada's largest union with more than 95,000 members, we can negotiate special rates with retailers and service providers.

Whether it's buying work clothes, getting in shape, lower prices for home or auto insurance, staying at hotels, renting cars, fixing locks or a whole lot more, we've got deals for you.

CAN YOU MAKE OUR DISCOUNTS PROGRAM BETTER?

We're glad you asked!

Maybe you have a favourite retailer that you'd like to help.

Maybe you have friends or family members running local businesses.

One good thing about our discounts program is that it's a two-way street. It's good for our members who get reduced prices, but it's also good for the businesses, who have their products and services marketed to our more than 95,000 members.

So, if you know a business that wants to reach AUPE members, check out the Discounts page on the AUPE website, where there's a link to a form to apply to become one of our discount partners.
