

On September 17, 2024, the Alberta Government used a Ministerial Order to stop education workers from striking.

The Government of Alberta has issued secret orders to our employers. Our employers are only allowed to offer what the government wants at the bargaining table.

The government's Critical Infrastructure Defense Act could make it harder to strike. It violates our right to freedom of assembly, including in public areas like sidewalks.