Subject to the efficient operations of the Employer, requests for Union leave will not be denied. The Employer will reply in writing to a request for leave of absence within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the request.
- 5.02 To facilitate the administration of Union leave as provided within the Collective Agreement, where Union leave has been granted, the Employer will continue the Basic Hourly Rate of the Employee during such leave. ARTICLE 6 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 6.01 The Union acknowledges that all management rights and prerogatives not otherwise abrogated or restricted in this Collective Agreement are vested exclusively with the Employer. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing it is the exclusive function of the Employer:
- (a) to determine and establish standards and procedures for the care, welfare, safety and comfort of the residents in the Employer;

- (b) to maintain order, discipline, efficiency and in connection therewith to establish and enforce reasonable rules and regulations, provided that the rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement;
- (c) to hire, transfer, lay-off, recall, promote, demote, classify, assign duties, discharge, suspend, or otherwise discipline Employees who have completed their probationary period for cause, provided that a claim of discriminatory transfer, promotion, demotion of classification or a claim that an Employee who has completed their probationary period has been discharged or disciplined without just cause, may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as hereinafter provided. The discharge of a probationary employee shall be solely in the discretion of the Employer, provided it is done in good faith and non-arbitrary fashion;
- (d) to have the right to plan, direct and control the work of the employees and the operations of the Employer. This includes the right to introduce new and improved methods, facilities, equipment, and to control the amount of supervision necessary, work schedules, and the increase or reduction of personnel in a particular area or overall.

ARTICLE 7 EMPLOYEE-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 7.01 In the spirit of both parties maintaining efficient and harmonious relationships, both parties will form an Employee-Management Committee (EMAC)
- 7.02 The Employee-Management Committee shall meet to discuss and, if possible, provide understanding of points of mutual interest between the Retirement Residence and the Union. Such meetings shall be held on a quarterly basis or as agreed to by the parties. If there is a need for a special meeting, the Parties will decide whether the issue requires a special meeting. If there are no items for discussion by the time of the quarterly meeting, the meeting will be cancelled by the Parties.
- 7.03 The Employee-Management Committee shall not have jurisdiction over any matter contained in the Collective Agreement, including its administration or negotiation.
- 7.04 Where there are matters of mutual concern and interest that would be beneficial if discussed at an Employee-Management Committee meeting during the term of this Agreement, the following shall apply:
 - (a) An equal number of representatives from each party as mutually agreed upon shall meet at a time and place that is mutually satisfactory. A request for such meeting will be made in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the date proposed and accompanied by an agenda of matters proposed to be discussed, which shall not be matters that are properly the subject of a grievance or matters that are properly the subject of negotiations for the amendment or renewal of the Collective Agreement.
 - (b) A Union Representative has the right to attend Employee-Management Committee meetings.

- (c) An Employee shall not suffer any loss of pay for attending for attending Employee-Management Committee meeting(s).

7.05 Minutes of each meeting will be kept. The minutes shall be subject to approval by both parties no later than seven (7) days following the date of the meeting. Upon approval by both parties, the approved minutes shall be posted by the Chapter on the Union bulletin board until the time of the next meeting.

ARTICLE 8 OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

8.01 The Employer shall maintain an Occupational Health & Safety (OH&S) Committee to consider matters of occupational health and safety and be in compliance with the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Act. A minimum of three (3) representatives of the Union elected by the Chapter will be members of the Facility OH&S Committee.

8.02 The OH&S Committee shall meet at least quarterly or more frequently if required by either party at a mutually acceptable hour and date.

8.03 An Employee shall not suffer any loss of pay for attending the OH&S Committee meetings.

8.04 Minutes of each meeting will be kept. The minutes shall be subject to approval by both parties no later than seven (7) days following the date of the meeting. Upon approval by both parties, the approved minutes shall be posted by the Chapter on the OH&S bulletin board until the time of the next meeting.

8.05 If recommendations by the OH&S Committee are not implemented or adequate steps do not seem to be taken in the opinion of the OH&S Committee towards implementation within two (2) months from the date the recommendation is made, the OH&S Committee may present the item to the General Manager. A written reply will be given by the Administrator within thirty (30) days of the presentation by the OH&S Committee.

ARTICLE 9 RESPECT IN THE WORKPLACE

9.01 The Employer, the Union and Employees are committed to a safe and respectful workplace where workplace violence, bullying, and harassment are not tolerated. The Employer has policy dealing with the handling of issues arising from workplace violence, bullying and harassment. The Employer, after proper investigation, may discipline for just cause any person employed by the Employer engaging in workplace violence, bullying or harassment.

- 9.02 The Employer and the Union agree to abide by the Alberta Human Rights Act. It is agreed there will be no discrimination, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced on the part of the Employer or the Union with respect to any Employee by reason of sexual preference, membership or non-membership or activity in the Union, nor in respect to any of the listed grounds in the aforementioned Act including age, race, colour, religious or political beliefs, gender, mental and physical disability, place of origin, marital status or ancestry. For the purposes of the Article, the Parties agree that the defenses and definitions of the aforementioned Act are applicable.
- 9.03 The parties recognize the value of informal discussion between Employees and their supervisors, and between the Union and the Employer, with the intent that problems and concerns be resolved without recourse to formal complaint.
- 9.04 As part of the informal resolution, an Employee who has a complaint of workplace violence, discrimination, bullying or harassment has a responsibility to document the incident and advise the offender that their actions are unwanted and improper. If the Employee is uncomfortable or feels intimidated about confronting the offender, the Employee shall contact their immediate supervisor, manager or Union Representative for assistance.
- 9.05 When an Employee submits a complaint of workplace violence, discrimination, bullying or harassment, the complaint will be investigated as soon as possible and in accordance with the Employer's Policy and Procedure. All Employees are required to cooperate with the investigation and maintain confidentiality.
- 9.06 If the investigation determines that workplace violence, discrimination, bullying or harassment, has occurred, the Employer may impose disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- 9.07 If the investigation determines that the Employee acted in bad faith in making the complaint or workplace violence, discrimination, bullying or harassment, the Employer may impose disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- 9.08 The Employer will not tolerate any form of retaliation against an Employee who, in good faith, makes a complaint of workplace violence, discrimination, bullying or harassment. Any alleged retaliation may be considered an act of workplace violence, discrimination, bullying or harassment and, therefore, subject to an investigation under the Employer's Policy and Procedure.
- 9.09 Normal disciplinary measures by the Employer shall not constitute harassment and/or bullying.
- 9.10 The Parties agree that neither Party should be required to defend itself in multiple forums. In the event that an Employee or either Party to this agreement files a complaint under any Alberta statute on the same or substantially the same facts and circumstances as those advanced under any grievance filed under this Article the grievance may not be referred to arbitration.

ARTICLE 10 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 10.01 A new Employee shall serve a probationary period of five hundred and three, point seven five (503.75) hours worked from date of hire. - (c) An Employee, at their request, may be accompanied by a Union Representative or Union Steward when reviewing their personnel file.
- 11.03 Where the Employee or the Employee's representative has requested copies of any contents of the Employee's personnel file, the Employer shall be entitled to charge reasonable costs to cover the cost of copying.

ARTICLE 12 DISCIPLINE & DISMISSAL

- 12.01 Except for the dismissal of an Employee serving their probationary period, no Employee shall be disciplined without just cause.
- 12.02 An Employee shall have the right to Union representation of their choice during a disciplinary or investigatory meeting with the Employer. The Employee will be told the time and place of the meeting. The Employer will provide reasonable notice of the meeting. If there is not a Union Representative or Steward available, this will not delay the meeting. An Employee shall have the right to waive the right to Union representation.
- 12.03 (a) When disciplinary action is taken against an Employee, the Employee and the Union shall be notified in writing as to the reason(s) for such action. Further, when an Employee is terminated, a copy of the document setting out the termination shall be forwarded to the Union.

- (b) The Employer will issue discipline up to and including termination within a reasonable timeframe of the date the Employer first became aware or reasonably should have been aware of the occurrence of the action giving rise to the disciplinary action.
- (c) The Employer will issue counselling's in the form of written documentation that will not be considered disciplinary action.

12.04 Records of formal disciplinary action (written warning, disciplinary suspensions) will, except as noted below, be removed from an Employee's personnel file once eighteen (18) months have elapsed since the date of the last formal disciplinary action on the file.

Formal disciplinary action, in this context is any disciplinary action which is reduced in writing and given to the Employee.

Discipline involving suspensions for abuse or neglect will not be removed until thirty-six (36) months have elapsed since the date of the last formal disciplinary action.

12.05 When an Employee has grieved a disciplinary action and a designated officer of the Employer has either allowed the grievance or reduced the penalty levied against the Employee, the personnel file of the Employee shall be amended to reflect this action provided this action results in the withdrawal of the grievance.

ARTICLE 13 GRIEVANCE & ARBITRATION

13.01 Communication

- (a) Any notice or advice which the Employer or members of its administrative staff are required to give to the Union in respect of any matter referred to in this Article shall be sufficient if delivered in writing to the Union Representative.
- (b) Any notice or advice which the Union is required to give to the Employer in respect of any matter referred to in this Article shall be sufficient if delivered in writing to the General Manager or designate.

13.02 Time Periods

- (a) For the purpose of this Article, "days" shall mean consecutive days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Named Holidays specified in Article 22.
- (b) The time limits for the grievance procedure are mandatory, but may be extended if mutually agreed to in writing by the parties.

- (d) Should the Employer fail to comply with any time limits in the grievance procedure, the grievance shall automatically move to the next step on the day following the expiry of the particular time limit unless the parties have mutually agreed in writing to extend the time limits.

- (b) A group grievance which will commence at step 2; or
- (c) A policy grievance by the Union which will commence at step 2, or
- (d) An Employer grievance which will commence at step 2.

13.04 If a dispute arises between the Employer and an Employee and/or the Union regarding the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement:

- (a) Discussion

It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of Employees will be reviewed as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an Employee has no grievance until they have first given the immediate supervisor the opportunity to resolve the complaint. If an Employee has a complaint, such complaint will be discussed with the immediate supervisor within three (3) days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint have originated or occurred. Alternately, if the immediate supervisor is not available within the three (3) day timeframe, the Employee may direct their complaint to the General Manager/Manager on Duty. If complaint cannot be resolved within three (3) days of the time the matter was brought to the attention of the supervisor, the Employee may proceed to Step 1 within the grievance procedure.

(b) Step 1 – To General Manager

If the grievance is not resolved at the Discussion stage, the Union may file a grievance, submitted in writing to the General Manager or designate within ten (10) days of the Employee receiving a decision at the Discussions stage. The grievance shall specify the Article(s) claimed to have been violated, the nature of the grievance and the redress sought. The General Manager or designate shall meet with the grievor and the Union Steward or Union Representative at a mutually agreeable time and date and shall issue their decision in writing to the grievor, with a copy to the Union, within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance.

(c) Step 2 – To Employee Services Designate

If the grievance is not resolved at step 1, the Union may submit the grievance in writing to the Employee Services Designate within ten (10) days of the receipt of the written decision of the General Manager or designate at step 1. The grievance shall specify the Article(s) claimed to have been violated, the nature of the grievance and the redress sought. The Employee Services Designate shall meet with the grievor and the Union Representative at a mutually agreeable time and date and shall issue their decision in writing to the Union within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance.

(d) Optional Mediation

- (i) Either party, with the agreement of the other party, may advance a grievance to mediation within ten (10) days of receipt of the Employer's written decision at Step 2. Where the matter is so referred, the mediation process shall conclude before the matter can to be advanced to Arbitration.
- (ii) No grievance shall be submitted to mediation which has not been properly carried through the grievance procedure.
- (iii) Mediation will commence within fifteen (15) days, subject to the availability of the mediator, of the grievance being submitted to mediation.
- (iv) The parties shall mutually agree on a mediator.
- (v) The Union and the Employer will share the cost of the mediator, if any.
- (vi) Proceedings before the mediator shall be informal. The purpose of the mediator's involvement in the grievance process is to assist the parties in reaching a resolution of the dispute. Anything said, proposed, generated or prepared by either party for the purpose of trying to achieve a settlement is to be considered privileged and will not be used for any other purpose.

- (vii) If desired, an agreed statement of facts will be provided to the mediator and, if possible, in advance of the mediation conference.
- (viii) The mediator will have the authority to meet separately with either party.
- (ix) If settlement cannot be reached either party can advance the matter to arbitration, in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement, within ten (10) days of the formal conclusion of mediation.

(e) Step 3 – Arbitration

- (i) Failing settlement, either party wishing to submit a grievance to arbitration shall notify the other party in writing of its intention to do so within ten (10) days of the response of the Regional Director or designate at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.
- (ii) The parties shall use a single arbitrator to decide unresolved grievances between them. The party submitting the grievance to arbitration shall advise the other party in writing of three (3) choices as to arbitrator. The recipient of the notice shall reply in writing as to the acceptance of one of the proposed Arbitrators or three (3) alternative choices as to the Sole Arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree to a Sole Arbitrator within twenty (20) days of the notice referring the matter to arbitration, then either party may request the Ministry of Labour for the Province of Alberta to appoint a Sole Arbitrator.
- (iii) The cost of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union.
- (iv) The arbitrator shall not have the jurisdiction to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, nor to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, nor give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, nor deal with any matter not dealt with in this Agreement. In a case where the penalty imposed by the Employer is at issue the Arbitrator may substitute or otherwise modify such penalty.
- (v) All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties to have access to the facility to view any disputed operations involved in the grievance.
- (vi) No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- (vii) No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been carried through all requisite steps of the grievance procedure.

13.05 Policy and Group Grievances
